

CONQUERING THE COUNTDOWN TO COLLEGE!

Checklist for 11th Graders

General Time Frame	College Admissions & Career Planning	Testing	Financial Planning
AUGUST—SEPTEMBER	*Work hard in all of your classes—it's difficult to pull up a low GPA (grade point average)! Manage your time effectively. *Use your PLAN results, GPA, level of courses, and interests to research career options. Tip—Use GCIS, www.gcis.peachnet.edu, at school. You should also use http://www.gacollege411.org/ to start or continue a college and career planning account. *Continue to take college preparatory and advanced level classes. Also consider taking classes that offer career training. *Explore college websites in order to find schools that interest you. Familiarize yourself with institutional programs, requirements, deadlines, and scholarships. Tip—attend the PROBE college fair at Alcovy High School. *Become familiar with the admission standards of the colleges in which you are interested. Be sure to find out which admission tests they require. *Commit to regular attendance at school. Also, take part in extracurricular activities—they will look great on your high school resume.	*You may want to begin registering for ACT and SAT tests. Check the college admission test schedule for registration and testing dates. Tip—Writing has become more important to college admissions tests. Work on your writing skills now! Tip—obtain the college bound reading list from your school's website and focus on reading as many of the selections as possible. *Work on vocabulary skills—obtain a list of often used words on the SAT and ACT and study them.	*Begin planning now for financing your college education—it's never too soon to start! *Locate the list of scholarships for underclassmen from your school's website. Many of these are essay contests which provide writing practice, as well as a potential financial reward. Tip—check out the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators website: www.nasfaa.org *Check the HOPE website, http://www.gsfc.org/HOPE/Index.cfm, for requirements that will apply to your graduating class. Make sure you stay on track! *Begin looking for senior year scholarships. GCIS, FastWeb.com, and http://www.collegeanswer.com are good resources. Tip—avoid scholarship scams. If you are asked for money, or if something seems too good to be true, it may be questionable. Check http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/conline/edcams/scholarship/ for answers to your questions. *Discover how the military can help pay for college through ROTC scholarships, academy appointments, or educational benefits for enlisting. Check www.myfuture.com for information. *Research cooperative education at colleges you are interested in attending. This is a great way to pay for your college education while gaining relevant work experience at the same time.
OCTOBER	*Make sure you have established a good relationship with teachers, coaches, club sponsors, counselors, and administrators. Later, when you ask them for letters of recommendation, they will remember you in a positive way.	*Take the PSAT *If your writing skills are not what they should be, get help now from a teacher.	*Work with your parents and ask your counselor how to plan for college costs.
NOVEMBER — DECEMBER	*Work on improving any disappointing grades. Ask for help and/or weekly reports. *Ask about opportunities to experience different work situations firsthand, including job shadowing, Youth Apprenticeship, and part-time employment.	*Take the ASVAB. This exam provides helpful vocational aptitude feedback.	*Talk with your parents about coming up with a plan to meet college expenses without going into debt. *Research different ways to save for college. Establish a savings plan and set aside money regularly.

JANUARY—MARCH	*Begin to narrow your list of college choices. Familiarize yourself with those colleges' admissions standards. Also, make sure you call the college admissions office and set up a tour for each school you're interested in during the spring. This will help you narrow your list of choices. Tip—With the implementation of the HOPE scholarship, admissions standards at Georgia colleges have become much stricter. Example:  UGA 2007 Admitted Student Profile  Middle 50% Core GPA: 3.63—4.0  Middle 50% SAT: 1150—1310  Middle 50% ACT: 25—29 *Notify your counselor if you are interested in attending a college during your senior year, participating in the Youth Apprenticeship program, attending either a military academy or a highly selective college after high school, or participating in a college summer program. *Continue to take the highest level of courses in which you are successful. Schedule Advanced Placement classes for your senior year.	*Keep reading and expanding your vocabulary. *Register to take the SAT and ACT Tip—If you are interested in a technical school, you should check with the school to see what placement testing will be necessary. Tip—Don't take the ACT or SAT too often. Scores may improve with the second and third tests and then begin to decline. Tip—Register for ACT or SAT online courses if needed. *If you are interested in a highly selective school, ask whether they require the SAT II subject exams, and register for the ones needed.	*Begin saving pay records for your FAFSA form that you will fill out in January of your senior year. *Save regularly for college. *If you work, put part of every paycheck into your college savings account. *To help you understand how financial aid rules work, check out the book Don't Miss Out offered by Octameron Press.  www.octameron.com/productsframe.html Tip—Find federal financial aid information at www.fafsa.ed.gov *If you plan to seek appointment to one of the military academies or a ROTC scholarship, begin the application process. *If you will need portfolios, audition tapes, writing samples, or other evidence of talent, begin preparing them now. *Begin talking with your parents and counselor about summer opportunities. Check out potential summer jobs or volunteering opportunities.
APRIL—JUNE	*Consider obtaining work experiences related to the career in which you are interested. *Apply for the Youth Apprenticeship program if it appears to be a good match for your interests and abilities.	*Advanced Placement Exams are given nationally in May in high schools. Be sure to have your scores sent to the college that you are most interested in attending.	*Continue researching college scholarship opportunities. Ask your counselor for the password for GCIS so that you can use this resource at home. Tip—Athletes should examine The Winning Edge, published by Octameron Press.  www.octameron.com/productsframe.html and www.ncaaclearinghouse.net to make sure they will qualify academically to play sports in college.
SUMMER	*Work, travel, or participate in a college summer program. Visit colleges that are near your family's vacation spots. *Write or email asking for college applications and begin preparing your college essays.	*Practice for the SAT during the summer.	*Collect information for your high school resume. Tip—Keep names, numbers, and addresses from volunteer or part-time work. You will need them for future use. Tip—Locate a sample resume form on your school's website.
