

CONTINUING THE COUNTDOWN TO COLLEGE!

Checklist for 10th Graders

General Time Frame	College Admissions & Career Planning	Testing	Financial Planning
AUGUST—OCTOBER	*Work hard in all of your classes—it's difficult to pull up a low GPA (grade point average)! Manage your time effectively. *Make a strong commitment to your extracurricular activities. They will look great on your high school resume. Tip—Use GCIS, www.gcis.peachnet.edu, at school. You should also use http://www.gacollege411.org/ to start or continue a college and career planning account. *Continue to take college preparatory classes. Also consider taking classes that offer career training. *Explore joint enrollment options including residential early entrance college programs for accelerated juniors and seniors. Tip—attend the PROBE college fair and use the college/career center at your school to find out more information about colleges you are interested in attending.	*Take rigorous courses and maintain good grades. You will need a minimum academic GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale to qualify for HOPE. Tip—Writing has become more important to college admissions tests. Work on your writing skills now! Tip—obtain the college bound reading list from your school's website and focus on reading as many of the selections as possible. *Take the PSAT	*Begin planning now for financing your college education—it's never too soon to start! *Locate the list of scholarships for underclassmen on your school's website. Many of these are essay contests which provide writing practice, as well as a potential financial reward. Tip—check out the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators website: www.nasfaa.org *Check the HOPE website, http://www.gsfc.org/HOPE/Index.cfm, for requirements that will apply to your graduating class. Make sure you stay on track! *Begin looking for senior year scholarships. GCIS, FastWeb.com, and http://www.collegeanswer.com are good resources. Tip—avoid scholarship scams. If you are asked for money, or if something seems too good to be true, it may be questionable. Check http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/edcams/scholarship/ for answers to your questions. *Discover how the military can help pay for college through ROTC scholarships, academy appointments, or educational benefits for enlisting. Check www.myfuture.com for information.
NOVEMBER & DECEMBER	*As your family makes plans for holiday travel, include brief tours of nearby colleges. Tip—If you call a college's admissions office, they will set up a free tour of the school for you.	*Continue working on study skills. Focus on vocabulary building and mathematics. *If your writing skills are not what they should be, get help now from a teacher.	*Work with your parents and ask your counselor how to plan for college costs. *Research the cost of the specific colleges you are interested in attending. Find information at GCIS. Ask your counselor for the password.

JANUARY—MARCH	*Work on improving any disappointing grades. Ask for help and/or weekly reports. *Ask about opportunities to experience different work situations first hand, including job shadowing, Youth Apprenticeship, and part-time employment. *Continue talking with your parents and school counselor about your postsecondary plans. *Notify your counselor if you are interested in attending a college during your senior year, participating in the Youth Apprenticeship program, attending either a military academy or a highly selective college after high school, or participating in a college summer program. (These choices may accelerate the timetable of recommended activities.) *Take any Advanced Placement courses available and/or talk to your counselor and teachers about taking Advanced Placement courses in the future.	*Explore internet resources for help with test preparation. *If you are interested in highly selective schools, ask whether they require SAT II subject exams and begin reviewing for any needed.	*Talk with your parents about coming up with a plan to meet college expenses without going into debt. *Research different ways to save for college. Establish a savings plan and set aside money regularly. *To help you understand how financial aid rules work, check out the book Don't Miss Out offered by Octameron Press. www.octameron.com/productsframe.html Tip—Find federal financial aid information at www.fafsa.ed.gov *Take advantage of opportunities to develop any special talents, exercise leadership ability, and volunteer for community service projects. Keep good records for your high school resume.
APRIL—JUNE	*Begin to narrow your list of college choices. Familiarize yourself with those colleges' admissions standards. Tip—With the implementation of the HOPE scholarship, admissions standards at Georgia colleges have become much stricter. Example: UGA 2007 Admitted Student Profile Middle 50% Core GPA: 3.63—4.0 Middle 50% SAT: 1150—1310 Middle 50% ACT: 25—29	*Keep reading and expanding your vocabulary. *Become familiar with the format of both the ACT and the SAT. Tip—If you are interested in a technical school, you should check with the school to see what placement testing will be necessary. Tip—Register for ACT or SAT online courses if needed.	*Continue developing money management skills. *Save regularly for college. *If you work, put part of every paycheck into your college savings account. *If you hope to finance your college education through an athletic scholarship, the end of your sophomore year may be a good time to make preliminary inquiries to colleges that interest you. A brief letter to the coach indicating interest may be beneficial. Tip—Check out http://www.ncaaclearinghouse.net for information on the recruiting process colleges may use.
SUMMER	*Work, travel, or participate in a college summer program. Visit colleges that are near your family's vacation spots.	*Continue reading and mastering vocabulary words as well as developing mathematical and writing skills.	*Collect information for your high school resume. Tip—Keep names, numbers, and addresses from volunteer or part-time work. You will need them for future use. Tip—Visit your school's visit for a sample resume.
